Environmental Policy

Mantissa Industries is committed to minimizing the effects of its production on its community and the world as a whole.

- We will continue to remain in compliance with all applicable environmental legislation regarding product manufacturers,
- We will strive to improve environmental performance wherever possible through varied methods,
- We will continue to reduce pollution, emissions, and waste,
- We will use as little raw material and supplies as possible,
- We will expect similar environmental standards from all our suppliers and contractors,
- And we will raise awareness, encourage participation, and train employees in environmental matters.
